

Quiz – Emissions inventory

The correct answers are on the next page.

1. An emissions inventory is:
  - a. A big list of things that pollute the air
  - b. A calendar of when people are allowed to light their fires
  - c. A letter saying it's ok to light your fire
  - d. When someone spells mission inventions wrong

2. True or False: Generally, burning coal creates more pollution than burning wood.
  - a. True
  - b. False

3. What is an emission factor?
  - a. A type of fire
  - b. How polluting a thing is e.g. a car
  - c. The amount of oxygen a thing emits
  - d. How much carbon dioxide a thing absorbs

4. In an emissions inventory you will find:
  - a. A big list of things that pollute the air in town
  - b. The emission factor for things in the town
  - c. Pictures of all the chimneys in town
  - d. Both a & b

5. The emission factor for cars is measured as:
  - a. Carbon dioxide per day
  - b. Songs on the radio per kilometre
  - c. Carbon dioxide per kilometre
  - d. Tyres per wheel

6. Which of the below would be included in an emissions inventory?
  - a. Cars
  - b. Fireplaces
  - c. Ships
  - d. All of the above

7. Newer fireplaces are usually ____ polluting than older models.
  - a. More
  - b. Less

8. True or False: Things can emit different amounts of pollution depending on the fuel used and how often it is being used.
  - a. True
  - b. False

Correct answers

1. a - A big list of things that pollute the air
2. a - True
3. b - How polluting a thing is e.g. a car
4. d - Both a & b
5. c - Carbon dioxide per kilometre
6. d - All of the above
7. b - Less
8. a - True